General Information

History of Bennett College for Women

In 1873, Bennett College had its beginning in the unplastered basement of the Warnersville Methodist Episcopal Church (now known as St. Matthew's Methodist Church). Seventy young men and women started elementary and secondary level studies. In 1874 the Freedmen's Aid Society took over the school which remained under its auspices for 50 years.

Within five years of 1873, a group of emancipated slaves purchased the present site for the school. College level courses and permanent facilities were added. In 1926, The Women's Home Missionary Society joined with the Board of Education of the church to make Bennett College in Greensboro, N.C., formerly co-educational, a college for women. The challenges that were overcome to establish Bennett demand that today's challenges be met and overcome to ensure her survival.

For more than 133 years women have found Bennett to be the ideal place to foster the constant rhythm of ideas. Each student's individual need for self-expression and desire for achievement is constantly nurtured. The College fosters a strong respect for every student. Today, in the midst of a very active renaissance, Bennett is preparing contemporary women to be well educated, productive professionals, informed, participating citizens, and enlightened parents. The College offers sixteen areas of study in Education, the Social Sciences, the Humanities, and in Natural and Behavioral Sciences and Mathematics. Numerous opportunities to study at other higher education institutions at home and abroad are available to continue the educational enrichment of Bennett's students.

Mission

Bennett College is a small, private, historically Black liberal arts college for women. The College offers women an education conducive to excellence in scholarly pursuits; preparation for leadership roles in the workplace, society, and the world; and life-long learning in a technologically advanced, complex global society. As a United Methodist Church-related institution, Bennett College promotes morally grounded maturation, intellectual honesty, purposeful public service, and responsible civic action.

The College welcomes students, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds, recognizing that the educational experience is enriched and strengthened when multiple voices are represented and heard. Operating in an interdisciplinary, learning-centered environment, students, working with faculty and staff, will learn to use sophisticated intellectual skills, think analytically, and solve problems in ways that respect a variety of viewpoints and deepen their understanding of different cultures.

At Bennett College, education takes place in an environment of open inquiry where teachers and students are immersed in educational processes that build community, foster authentic research, create knowledge, and advance scholarship and personal empowerment. Students will leave Bennett College prepared for success in the world of work and further studies, possessing a greater appreciation of the history and culture of Africa and the African Diaspora, the struggles and accomplishments of women, and a realization of their own ability and the possibilities to help change the world.

Philosophy

Bennett College's undergirding philosophy is that a high quality college experience should provide its women students with strong academic and co-curricular programs that encourage their personal development, endorse life-long learning, and prepare them to meet the needs of an ever-changing society.

Bennett College values and respects every member of its community. As a United Methodist Church-related institution, the College believes that education should be related to humanitarian ends.

Library

Thomas F. Holgate Library seeks to accommodate the educational programs, philosophy, mission, goals and objectives of the College. In that regard, the College has made constant efforts to provide and maintain a balanced library program that fosters and aids the promotion and achievement of academic, professional, and personal excellence.

Thomas F. Holgate Library houses collections totaling over 89,000 print volumes, over 100 periodical subscriptions, and a media collection of over 1,000 items. In addition to traditional hard copy print resources, access to information via electronic media (including NCLive, JStor, Mary Ann Liebert database, NetLibrary and NewsBank) is also available through campus network and remotely. Holgate Library is home to several special collections, which are as follows: Robert Tarpley Taylor Music Collection, Women's Collection, Robert Currie Theatre Collection, Black Collection; Archives: Norris Wright Cuney Collection. Curriculum Instructional Material Center is located on the lower level of the Library. It serves as a laboratory and media center for teachers and students in the Teacher Education Program as well as a resource unit for those in the general education program.

The Holgate Library is equipped with up-to-date technology including wireless internet access, computer workstations/desktop computers, and notebook computers for checkout and use in the library, multimedia viewing station, typewriter, and scanner. Holgate Library is a member of the North Carolina Piedmont Automated Library System (NC-Pals), the merged catalogs between Bennett College, Greensboro College, Guilford College, Salem College and Salem Academy. This means Bennett College students, staff and faculty have circulation privileges from these libraries with some limitations. Intra-library loan with consortium schools and interlibrary loan with world wide access is provided as a service to Holgate Library patrons.
