

Study Abroad - Timeline

- Think about where you might want to study abroad and what term
- Visit the Center for Global Studies to receive more information.
- Apply for the Bennett passport scholarship
- Attend a Center sponsored event
- Research different study abroad provider programs and how future courses fit with your plan
- Apply for study abroad scholarships
- Pick your top programs
- Discuss your choices with your global education coordinator
- Submit Bennett Study Abroad Application
- Discuss plans with all academic advisors
- Have all required advisors sign transfer course paperwork
- Keep up with all submission deadline
- Submit provider's application with application fee
- Submit passport application

Have a great semester abroad!

- Let the Center for Global Studies know about your travels
- Pack, have all important documents, notify your bank,
- Tell family and friends
- Make sure all payments for your journey are settled
- Get all medication needed for your journey
- Submit all forms to your study abroad program
- Attend a Bennett Pre-Departure Orientation with Center for Global Studies
- Book all flights and secure housing.
- Apply for necessary visas for the host country
- Apply for scholarships

